Local Magic

Brought to you by FRIENDS OF OLD TOWN

Hey Friends,

Welcome to the Old Town Winchester Holiday Shopping Guide! Whether you've lived here your whole life, just moved in, or you're visiting for the day, we're so glad you're spending part of your season with us on the bricks. Old Town has always been Winchester's gathering place — a spot where neighbors catch up, families make memories, and local businesses pour their hearts into creating something special for our community.

This guide is a simple way to highlight all the incredible shops, restaurants, and cozy hideaways that make Winchester shine a little brighter during the holidays. When you choose to shop, sip, and celebrate downtown, you're supporting local jobs, strengthening our small-business community, and helping keep this historic district vibrant for generations.

So grab a warm drink, take a stroll, and enjoy everything Old Town Winchester has to offer this season. Thanks for being part of what makes this place feel like home — and for choosing to support the local businesses that make Winchester, Winchester.

See you downtown,

Brady

Winchester man. Family man. And for real estate - your man.

11 years in real estate, 100+ five star reviews, $200M+ sold.

Good relationships are built on trust, and nothing is more critical when buying or selling real estate. I understand the importance of this role in such an enormous and often life-changing decision. That's why I am responsive and encourage you to contact me 24/7 through phone, text or email. Whether it's advice, questions or concerns, I am your man.

I serve first time homebuyers, homeowners seeking to upgrade, those interested in investment properties or flip houses, or buyers hunting for the right commercial property. My knowledge of the area and industry, plus my reputation for hard work, negotiation skills and professionalism have garnered me five-star ratings on real estate sites from positive reviews by clients.

Testimonials

"Dan provided professional service. He was available when I needed to talk to him, and provided feedback that was effective. The house had great pictures taken of it, and he used multiple media platforms to advertise. He handled the negotiation process magnificently, and always had my back as the seller. I would recommend him to anyone interested in selling their house."

"Dan knows how to navigate the complexities of real estate purchases while providing superior service to his clients. He cares about the needs of his clients and works to fulfill their objectives and desires with a smile, he got a great sales price on our home and I know he can for you as well!"
